

Professional Development for General Classroom Teachers

General classroom teachers Pre-k through 8 with no musical background receive hands-on instruction in using music and the arts to support academic achievement in their classrooms.

"This workshop was one of the best workshops I attended because it provided me with practical techniques and strategies on how to integrate music in to the classroom with any subject."

Jessica A. Sanchez
5th Grade Teacher
Jersey City Public School #17

Arts Based Academic Instruction

This workshop explores ground-breaking cross-curricular approaches to increase academic success in literacy, math and other subject areas by using easy to play musical instruments. Test-preparation and test-taking skills are also addressed by utilizing positive musical reinforcement.

Coaching Mentoring & Push-In Support

Through classroom demonstrations and one-on-one personal dialogues, teaching professionals are given the skills to master creative strategies in curriculum delivery and classroom management.

The Art of Classroom Management

This workshop supports educators in developing successful teaching strategies and techniques using music and movement across all subject areas. This workshop is directly informed by teachers' curriculum in order to re-invigorate teaching and the classroom.
